

C. Dan Joyner Good Neighbor Award

Since 2002, the C. Dan Joyner Good Neighbor Award has recognized REALTORS® who have made an extraordinary impact on their community through volunteer work. The award recipient will also be entered into NAR's Good Neighbor Awards contest.

- Nominees must be members in good standing.
- Nominees should have made a significant impact as a volunteer for a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Eligible activities are not limited to real estate or housing issues and may include volunteer work done overseas.
- Nominees should have made a significant contribution of personal time, but contributions of money, materials, and other resources may also be considered.
- Nominees will be judged on level of personal contribution, impact of personal contribution, broadness of impact, and the project's suitability as a role model for other REALTORS®.
- The award is intended to recognize individual contributions, not association- or company-wide efforts. If an individual within a company can be singled out as instrumental to the success of a group effort, he or she is eligible. If the achievements of two people (such as a married couple or co-founders of an organization) cannot be separated, they can enter as a pair and their entry will be considered as one.
- Nominees should be able to document the results of their individual involvement through published reports and/or testimonials from the organization they served or the people they helped.
